BRIDGE COSTUME.

This conservative bridge costume of green faille silk with a deep collar of brown fox came from the House of Callot. The skirt flares considerably and the bouffant effect is increased by the lace edged flounce. Black braid ornaments form a panel in the front and the flounce is topped with a band of the brown fur.

AFTERNOON GOWN BY GEORGETTE

A sage green faille with narrow edgings of mole, the extremely wide skirt has two narrow scalloped ruffles near the foot.

From JOHN WANAMAKER.

INTERESTING PAQUIN FEATURES IN THIS GOWN.

This interesting gown was copied from a Paquin model. The overskirt of beige chiffon velvet is gracefully posed over a petticoat of beige chiffon, while the chiffon bodice is trimmed with a skunk banded velvet collar.
